Equality and Diversity

2.5 million people in the UK have experienced harassment at work.

This face-to-face equality and diversity course will support both employees and employers to explore and understand their responsibilities within the act. With a detailed look at the Equality Act this course challenges stigma and nurtures understanding for inclusion, diversity and fairness. This course works through each protected characteristic and reviews the different types of discrimination as well as a view on maintaining professionalism in the workplace. With thought provoking practical activities and stimulating videos; learners will leave this course with a greater awareness of what equality is; and an understanding of how they are a crucial part of breaking the stigma and promoting an inclusive and diverse work environment. A must have course for any workplace.

Course Duration: Half Day
